

Apple Cabin Capsule House

Working from home has its advantages - but after the same set up for over a year, the lines between work and your personal time start to blur. If you're itching for a change of scenery, looking to unwind and escape even just for a while, a staycation away from the city might do you some good. Fortunately in the past year, a rise of unique accommodations have popped up - cabin-style accommodations being one of them. Typically engulfed in nature, these cozy accommodations will not only offer guests a relaxing staycation experience, but a mentally nourishing one, too.
