

Diagram illustrating a block cipher structure with 128 blocks. The blocks are arranged in a sequence, with the first 64 blocks being black, the next 32 blocks being blue, and the last 32 blocks being black. Below the blue blocks, there is a label '2' and a small diagram of a block with two inputs.