

A 3D architectural rendering of a modern building constructed from stacked shipping containers. The building features a two-story design with large glass windows and doors, a wooden slat facade on the ground floor, and a flat roof. The interior is visible through the glass, showing a minimalist design with a desk and chair.

[illegible]